

ASHLEY MARTIN

Based on the East Coast, woodworker Ashley Martin crafts contemporary home goods - vessels, lighting, and sculptural objects. His unique process utilizes a combination of modern woodworking and traditional hand carving, which create subtle textures providing a distinct handmade quality in each piece. Integrating sculpture and function, his designs invoke both natural and architectural forms.
