

BEN MEDANSKY

Ben Medansky is an orchestrator of controlled chaos, a sculptor of hard edges in naturalistic worlds, a refiner of industrial aesthetics that retain rough and human qualities. The varied environments of Arizona, Chicago and Los Angeles - both natural and manmade - are the foundation to Ben's creative inspiration. He is especially influenced by Brutalist and Modern architecture and industrial design; specifically by the strong and diverse architecture of downtown LA and its seemingly uninterrupted construction.

