

IN COMMON WITH

Nick Ozemba and Felicia Hung met on the first day of their freshman year in the furniture design program at the Rhode Island School of Design. After four years of intense material-driven training, Nick went on to design interiors while Felicia designed products. Few things are as magnetic as well-matched work-styles, so they reunited to form In Common With in 2017, and now they work on everything together. With Brooklyn as home base, they've built a top-notch team and a family of collaborators around the world.
